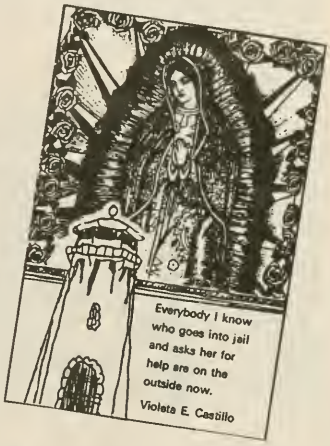
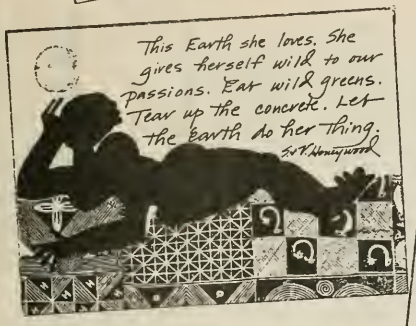
Selket
Womyn identified and exquisite Goddess...
Sleek, black and beautiful she ignites an erotic silence intoxicating my soul and electrifying my passion. She is filled with womyn spirits: wisdom, compassion and love. She is the brilliance in my life that once was just a fantasy.
Ayanna Nsenga





This Earth she loves. She gives herself wild to our passions. Eat wild greens. Tear up the concrete. Let the Earth do her thing.
S.V. Honeywood

Lillian Gish
Silent Screen Actress
In Way Down East, 1919, she spent a grueling day on an ice floe floating towards a waterfall, hand drafting in the freezing water...until the perfect scene was captured on film.

Postcards by Liz Brunner, Ayanna Nsenga, Violeta Castillo, Stephanie and Varnette Honeywood, Liana Cruz, Barbara Yanker, and Dolores Guerrero-Cruz from The Postcard Project: Celebrating Our Heroines directed by Cheri Gaulke, artist-in-residence at the Woman's Building.
